Let's get back on track here.

Updated - Below is the "final" list if you will and I say the best idea for everyone is to bring enough to feed 8 to 10 people. With all the different foods we will have I do not see anyone going hungry or thirsty at breakfast or lunch. I believe I have everyone down for what they agreed to bring. Papparise is now bringing ice for the water and soda. So Larry and Les if you could bring some sort of dessert food I think we will have everything covered. As Dog mentioned, please bring some empty containers so that we can take food home and not waste it. Thanks.
