D- thanks. Starting to feel like the mayor with all the thank you's.

Ha.

But I see this stuff working. Yesterday, unbeknownst to me I think I tried some of the things in the article you mentioned as well as the other folks suggestions. Learning some stuff and it has been enjoyable actually catching fish. Hit Slippery Rock but in the day time (with bright sun- so still not much top water action yet) so still have not seen that white fly action yet. Maybe soon.
