

Subject: : Fly Fishing Locations

Topic: : catskills brookies general question catskills brookies general question

Author: : k-bob

Date: : 2013/7/27 9:22:28

URL:

I will probably make my first ever brook trout trip to the Catskills soon. this is just a general question I'd like to find my own small streams using maps... anyone know whether brookies are relatively common in small catskills streams just above the NE corner of pa? for example I think brookies are pretty common in the Poconos an North Central PA is it about like that up there? def higher elevations not far from the border... thanks