I'll definitely be fishing the Juniata! I'll be living like 5 minutes from it. Plus my fiance's dad loves to take his bass boat out on the Juniata, so I'm sure he'll be around to do that. I've been talking to him about targeting the Muskie we've seen there while fishing it in Huntington. Lol. We'll see what happens.

I'm really excited about this move! I'll be working a real job too, so maybe I'll find some money to buy a kayak or something. I've been to raystown lake once, but never fished it because I never had time, and I felt like it wasn't the type of place I'd have luck at from the shore.
