

Subject: : Fly Fishing Locations

Topic: : Donegal article

Re: Donegal article

Author: : jeremymcon

Date: : 2013/7/28 12:55:10

URL:

15 and 17 inch wild brown trout in the Donegal? That's really surprising. I've never seen any browns there other than little fingerling browns. I guess class A would be a good idea for that stream. Do they attribute the presence of a wild brown trout population to restoration efforts by TU? Or have they always been there?