I apparently am under a lot of peer (or gear) pressure and went ahead and ordered the Pursuit in 10' 7 weight after reading back into this post and regretting my return of my tlr. I ordered from Kitterytradingpost.com and scored the rod for $99.99 plus free shipping and a free 75th anniversary t-shirt. That is actually equal to cabelas with the on sale tlr series and I scored a free shirt. I hope the Pursuit works out well!
