Before this thread fades away to obscurity, I'd just like to give credit where credit is due.

Foxgap239 did 99.9% of the setup work for this event - Delta Dog and I just backed him up.

Fox did an exceptional job of organizing this, and stayed on top of it the whole way. He put the interests of the attendees above his own - he only fished for a very brief time in the early morning, then put his gear away to make sure the attendees were cared for as they arrived.

Nice job, Fox!
