Thanks so much for a great day of fishin', fellowship and food. Fox did an outstanding job with help from HA and Dd. Fox wasn't the only one to get out of the fishin' garb and into work mode. I was just ready to head to the water when I noticed that HA had put away the waders. When I asked him why he wasn't fishing he responded "that's not why I'm here, I have other duties toady."

Kudos to all who participated in making the event a success!
