Wetfly01: When you say "heavy" can you tell me what you are comparing it to? A couple of my 7' 6" bamboo are a tad heavy, compared to graphite, but not a problem. All the 8'+ bamboo I tried were "really" heavy. I have a Hardy Princess, so that is good. I wonder if they have changed in weight over time?

Turkey: I would be interested in hearing your feelings if you get one. I am really leaning toward getting one and the only reason I can give is.....just because. 😊
