Sandy- Thank you for the offer; I am definitely interested in the pontoon. Unfortunately, the 4+ hour drive limits my availability to come get it in the next couple weeks. Perhaps a camping trip to Colton Point is order soon... I will keep you posted to check if it is still available.

Dave- Thanks, that would be great. I'm sure having someone show me the ropes would cut the learning curve quite a bit. I have floated the Yough before, but in an inflatable 2 person Kyak. I'm guessing a pontoon would be a different experience all together.

Cricket- I have look at the Sea Eagle line as well. For some reason those boats seemed more geared toward still water to me. Though they do look nice.
