

Subject: : Fly Fishing Locations

Topic: : west branch of the deleware

Re: west branch of the deleware

Author: : mcwillja

Date: : 2013/8/2 10:45:58

URL:

Some good advice from Andy there. can't really add anything other than when you see rising fish don't be in a hurry to cast. Wade slowly to get into position and make that first cast count because any drag or sloppy casting puts these fish right down. It's major league dry fly fishing right now. The fish aren't as spooky on the Isos and Cahills but the olives and sulphurs are a whole different ball game.