

Subject: : Fly Fishing Locations

Topic: : Strange Morning on Brodhead Creek

Re: Strange Morning on Brodhead Creek

Author: : Chaz

Date: : 2013/8/4 8:30:42

URL:

Swallows fly incredibly fast, just try to photograph one in flight, you will often see them catch bugs on the water, or just fly down to take a drink in flight. I've fished streams with heavy flights of swallows so often I'm surprised I haven't caught a swallow yet.

To answer the question about deformed mouths on trout, yes, it happens, both as a genetic deformity and from hook damage.