Before I got the Cabelas rod I went to the local Gander Mountain which carries Redington Pursuits(not the 10ft 7wt though) and it felt ok but I decided to take my chances with the TLr. The TLr is actually a little heavier than I thought(feels kinda like my 8wt) but I still like it.

But there's one little thing that kinda annoys me, the rod is 9ft and 11.5inches! lol. Don't ask why but I had the urge to measure the rod and it came up a half an inch short. All the other rods I measured were right at the length they were supposed to be.
