Agree with the others, I just got back from a trip to MT and had no problem. I was on United out of ABE to Bozeman. I carried 2 rod tubes (taped together) on as my 1 personal item. I had a small duffle bag with my reels, chestpack, and other assorted gear. We had 4 in our group and we all did the same. We checked 1 bag for the 4 of us that had our nippers, flies, hemo, etc. (but all the critical gear was carried on)
