Make sure you have a pair of croakies on them Pat. I never lose a cheapo pair, but give me 20 minutes with a decent pair of shades and they're getting stuck on a branch and pulled off my head when I'm brush busting and don't notice, or floating down a Lehigh River trib, or flying off my tonneau cover (Note: the croakies won't save you from that one)...and those are the deaths of just the last 3 pairs!
