For those who carried on 4pc rod tubes: Were you also carrying on a backpack and/or standard carry-on sized piece of luggage?

On my major carrier flights, I carried on

- rod case holding 4 rods
- backpack
- my fishpond "storm mountain" bag with most of my fishing gear (reels, flies, assorted tackle, etc)

on one flight, I was asked by the boarding agent to gate check one of my items. On all of the other flights, they let me carry all 3 on.
