I'd love to do a fall and spring trip with you guys. Like Sasquatch, I'm loading up the credit hours to finish school next May. Graduation is just the beginning. After commencement it will be right back to the library to study for the July bar. I doubt I'll be able to get away for an over night trip after school starts later this month. I'll be pretty much out of commission until August of 14. Man it hurts to write that.
