+1 for Cathy's idea. 2 good places to start are Hickory Run SP or Promised Land SP have access to nearby streams and very nice camping though during the summer months they get very crowded on weekends. There are a bunch of other private C.G.'s. in the Poconos, that also have streams nearby.

Dingman's CG is along the Delaware and all those streams that enter the Delaware are on the wild trout lists and on public land. Probably the stream that gets the most use is Tom's Creek, so on a weekend I wouldn't go there. The others are a fun experience.
