This isn't a direct comparison as this is the cheaper rod. Opening day this year I had a St. Croix Rio Santo and was super excited that I got something moderately priced and not the $15.00 Eagle Claw I bought a few months before.

Hit a twig about an hour in just walking through the woods, not any forceful on a cast or anything, and on the next cast, rod tip broke off. Took it back and got a replacement, very next time, the rod tip broke an hour in AGAIN.

I gave up. I went to Redington Pursuit 9' 5-wt and haven't looked back. Also bought the 9' 8-Wt and the 8' 4-WT since they were on sale for $60.00 each over 4th of July weekend, and I've loved all 3 of them....
