DJ, when I cast "properly" 10-2, it seems to hit very often. If I open my stroke a little more, it barely seems to occur. I'm not sure why, but at least I've found something that works for me.

I picked up a Three Forks. Now Kray has me wanting to drive back today to return it. Haha. I just needed something cheap to fish with Sunday. It did ok, and pulled in a nice rainbow and couple browns without self destructing.
