I'd love to read your reviews of the new Rio line. I'm thinking about new line for a couple rods but hesitate at the cost.

I went with SA XPS for my 2 wt(TFO Signature) and 4 wt (Gary Borger LT) rods and I'm not thrilled with it. I actually put an old Orvis Clearwater line on the 4 wt and like it better but for some applications (dry fly, small stream) I'm afraid the presentation will suffer.
