

Subject: : Conservation

Topic: : More work along the Loyalhanna

Re: More work along the Loyalhanna

Author: : DaveS

Date: : 2013/8/13 12:11:43

URL:

In years past, I did participate in a great deal of that stream improvement. Much of it was bank stabilization, which prevented tons of sediment from entering the streambed. As well as maintaining riparian habitat.

It is worth noting it is not flyfishing only, but Delayed harvest, Artificial lures only. And a very popular spot at that. Some of the previous work done back into the late seventies won Forbes Trail TU the "Silver Trout award IIRC.