

Subject: : Beginner Forum

Topic: : Need help with a downstream approach

Re: Need help with a downstream approach

Author: : tulenkot

Date: : 2013/8/13 22:15:34

URL:

If you want to catch the rainbow. Let a big bead or conehead black woolybugger drift downstream into the lie and let it hang there in the current, jerking it now in then to mimic a baitfish holding in the current. Do this either early or late in the day and you'll catch it.