I'm heading out this weekend for a trip to Colorado. It's my first trip out west, so I'm not sure what to expect, but limiting the trip to public water I expect it to be similar to PA with new scenery.

The plan is to fish the headwaters of the Arkansas, the Blue River, Upper Colorado and possibly the Frying Pan. I've already tied about 6 dozen flies and looked at a bunch of maps, but if anyone has tips as far as access is concerned or a favorite spot a day trip's distance from the Frisco/Breckenridge area they're willing to share I'd appreciate it. I'll post some pictures when I get back ... provided I don't forget my camera along with all the flies I have been tying :)
