Sorry a small glitch in the site. I'll work on fixing it. The Anakim 7/8 is 6.35 oz and the 9/10 is 7.23 oz. They're actually lighter than the Ichthus reels. Konic's are great reels, I can't deny that, but these Anakim reels are really quality reels themselves. Those who have had them in their hands or are using them now are impressed with how they look and perform for the price.
