Fishing at a hatchery is frowned upon as well. It will get you a ticket or introduced to Jailmates.

If there are other fly fisherpeople in the area - introduce yourself and ask if you can join in the area or how far (distance wise) one should be from them before casting. And never cut across someones fishing area.

If you deep hook a fish, best not try to remove the hook. Cut your line as close to the mouth opening as possible. The hook will eventually work itself out - and by cutting the line close - it wont get caught on debree.
