

Subject: : Warm Water & Salt Water Fly-Fishing

Topic: : Nymphing fast runs (slots) for smallies

Re: Nymphing fast runs (slots) for smallies

Author: : Swattie87

Date: : 2013/8/20 14:58:29

URL:

Those are the kind of lies Smallies like from mid to late Summer. I'd lose the dropper...just more to get tangled and it will make casting the streamer harder. Just get the bugger or another weighted streamer deep on the far side of the current seam and then swing it across. Rock Bass usually won't hold in that kind of water (too much current), but you'll find out pretty quickly if there are Smallies there.