I have the good fortune (and occassional curse) to travel a fair amount for business. Work will bring me out to Philly, and I will have a weekend in mid-September to hit the water.

Fished the Catskills on the Neversink and Beaverkill in NJ, but unfamiliar with what might be around Philly (or within a few hours' drive of there). Salt is OK, streams and rivers OK, lakes - not much expereince but willing to try. Nymphying, streamers and dry - all OK.

Interested in any recommendations for guides or general areas/cities recommended to start my search. Like the map available here, but do not know what parts of PA are good that time of year, and happy to drive and see the scenery. Anyone who wants to meet up would also be fine. Weekend of Sept. 20-22.

Happy to reciprocate should you ever find yourself heading out to LA.

Not sure PMs are available here, so let me know best way to communicate.

Thanks for the look.

Cheers.
