This is a bit outside the topic of the post but I was just a bit disappointed in Allen this week. I got an email about 30% off hooks and beads if you ordered $50 worth. I figured I'd stock up on the hooks I needed only to find that none of the dry fly hooks I wanted were in stock, so I couldn't get to the $50 minimum. Oh well, maybe he'll do it again when he has all hooks in stock.
