Have 590.4. Prefer it over my z-axis. DaveS has one that I believe he's very happy with. I may be driving past you in the next 2 weeks. If so, you are welcome to cast it.

It also depends what you like the rod to feel like when casting. You want a board, a noodle or something in between? Elite feels firm with a med-soft tip. Good in close and watched old lefty fire an entire 125' tournament line with mine. Don't cast a Helios2 or your bank account will be $800 short.
