Cabela's isn't getting my money either. Poor customer service. Ordered 2 rods from them site to store pick-up. They were the Three Forks rod on sale for 30$. Well long story short when we got there to pick up the rod they didn't have them. Said they got them in and put them out on the racks and sold them not knowing they were already accounted for. So I had to wait another THREE MONTHS for them to get me one, and both trips I wanted them for I had to borrow a buddy's.
