Not sure what you mean by completely out of the way.

Here are suggestions within an hour's drive of Pittsburgh (Home of the Future World Champion Pirates):

Slippery Rock Creek (anywhere)

Buffalo Creek from Freeport up to Boggsville (accessible via Rt 28)

Lower Youghiogeny River from West Newton up

Neshannock Creek (especially from Neshannock Falls downstream)

Beaver River (anyplace)

Any medium size stream in the Pgh area that isn't too polluted
