Whereabouts are you camping at Raystown? Back at Branch Camp Grounds, back towards the dam, Through Creek area? You are pretty much surrounded with blue ribbon trout streams if your around Huntingdon/Raystown. Spruce Ck and The Little Juniata River, The Juniata its self depending on what your going after. The tail water out of the dam down to Corbin Island is a good bass fishery. Standing Stone just north of Huntingdon.... The list goes on if you want to drive, head on over to Penns and Spring. You are where everybody wants to be to go fly'n.

We have a place just outside of Huntingdon back towards the dam. We very well may be going up that weekend. I may have some time to show you a spot or two. Stay in touch.
