I have the TALS - 500 for my smallie chest pack. I am embarrassed to say I paid more 12 years ago for it than what it sells for today. It is perfect for holding trebbled plugs and buzz baits.

Int to sure how it would translate to a fly pack but it is cheap for a chest pack and you could always rip out the fly holders and use it for plugs.

I think it sold for $50 back then and I got it for $30 from a bait shop going out of business.

Anyway, its worth a shot for the money.
