

Subject: : Hatch and Entomology Forum

Topic: : Ever fish a Paraleptophlebia guttata hatch?

Re: Ever fish a Paraleptophlebia guttata hatch?

Author: : pcray1231

Date: : 2013/9/9 9:14:40

URL:

I've fished good spinner falls of Paraleps in June on Penns. Usually late morning. And yeah, fish rose to them. Seen them many times on Spring, too. Spinner falls late mornings in June, before the tricos begin. And every year, I hear reports of trico's coming early and wonder.

I took them to be P. Mollis, though. "Jenny spinners." Definitely had that clear thorax like a fish's pic.