Billed as a fast action rod with a powerful taper for bigger fish, it comes in the 5 most common saltwater sizes: 9-foot, 8 through 12-weight.

We've had mixed opinions about price-point rods in the past. Why? It's tough for a great rod designer to do less than their best. It's like asking Picasso to draw a stick figure. We're hoping the price isn't the Motive's biggest selling point.
