Nice thing about LLBean is if they do leak you can take them back and pay for an upgrade if you want a nicer wader. No questions asked on their warranty.

If they leak will they also exchange right @ the store?

I ask this as I brought the waders (orvis) I had to ship back to the store and they wouldn't exchange. I didn't make a fuss as it was my responsibility to know the full policy per their warranty. I had to send them to Orvis wader repair. Exchanging would've been better and easier.
