"Shoefly, dragonfly, get back t'your mother.
Pick up a flat rock, skip it across Green River.
Wellllllll!" - John Fogerty - "Green River"

I still think as often as not, it is an affectation, as in " Yesterday, we fished The Walnut not far downstream from the Millcreek Mall water treatment outflow.."

Next, someone will start calling it "The Wall-A-Knute".

That way it'll sound more like it is located in British Columbia.....:)

You've been gone to long...Its never The Walnut. Its Walnut or The Nut.
