Back some 15/20 years ago I hooked one in the ear up at Snavely's Dam/Hammer Creek. She had been sneak'n up on me and push'n me in the back that much that I had a big wet spot on my back and every time I turned around to swat at her she'd run of a few yards. I finally hooked ol number 26 in the ear. That was the bras tag number in said ear.... I am so glad nobody was around to see that little chase. I did get my fly back tho. I finally gage up and just sat down. She came strol'n over and let me take it out. All that for a .35 cent Adams! Go figure.
