The Letort

That's right. Similarly:

The Conodoguinnet

Conodoguinnet Creek

But with rivers, it's different:

The Delaware

The Delaware River

pretty funny isn't it? asked my wife who travels a lot to describe where I fish in Carlisle. She stated "Letort". I asked her to make a complete statement and she said, "You fish Letort". Not THE Letort. I further asked what the actual name of the stream I fished was and she advised "Letort Spring Run".

She drives over Letort a lot and apparently reads the signs (and looks for me dicking around)
