

Subject: : Paflyfish General Forum

Topic: : September's wild trout

Re: September's wild trout

Author: : salmonoid

Date: : 2013/9/16 12:07:31

URL:

I find that a dry/dropper combo works quite well on mixed brookie/brown streams. I usually take the most brookies on top and the browns on the dropper. I've combined a big stimulator with a wooly bugger on one stream (results in more of a sunken stimulator), a hopper/micro bugger, and various dries with San Juan worms or green weenies. You could also go all terrestrial with a beetle/worm combo.