

Subject: : Hatch and Entomology Forum

Topic: : What's on the surface

What's on the surface

Author: : henrydavid

Date: : 2013/9/18 19:44:46

URL:

Fished a small creek yesterday, didn't take a temp measurement but the water was COLD Levels were low so spooky trout was the name of the game. I did see a few rises but couldn't see anything on the water.

This was late afternoon, besides the possible ant or hopper what else might they be feeding on, and what imitations might work?