That was pretty much our plan, I kinda know there aren't any good places to eat close by, but was hoping someone might have stumbled across a hidden gem.

I've always liked the pizza upstairs at the general store in Seneca, which I'm sure you've already stumbled across.

Or if'n you want something a bit higher brow, other side of the mtn from Harmons is the North Fork Mountain Inn on the SmokeHole side of the ridge, definitely hidden/off the beaten path...
