I've been known to call it "The Pine", and everyone who has heard me state these legendary words knows exactly what stream I mean.

What do I know I'm just dumb, but if you said it to me, there'd be a ? on my forehead.

It's just been an ongoing gag here. Csoult was the first one to pick up on it. When I was growing up, my dad always referred to Pine Creek (big Pine) as "The Pine". It's his PA dutchy roots. So, naturally, I caught onto it. About 2 years ago after the first QG Summit, I posted something about Pine and called it "The Pine". Csoult posted how he cracks up every time I call it "The Pine", others picked up on it, and well, the rest is PAFF history. I'm just yanking your chain Chaz.

As I was yanking your's, I always hear it called Big Pine though, and in fact I call it that myself.
