Here's my most recent video, featuring Lee Wulff's White Wulff. This is a great fly to fish (as I'm sure many of you have over the years), and I wanted to share it with this group. I did have a LITTLE problem @ the end when my tying thread came lose at the whip finish, but I always half-hitch prior to that. I didn't want to edit that all simply bc I like stressing that mistakes happen, and they can sometimes be managed.

Thanks, and I hope you enjoy it!
