given the significant difference in price for the zipper .....do you still have to take off he vest nd shed the suspenders to pee? orvis ads look like the zipper stops too high to allow just unzip to pee. I'm 66..... you get my concern.

John,

Here's the poop on peeing.

I've worn the Sonic Seam Convertable waders, the ones that slide down to convert to waist high waders, for a year now (the zippered sonics are a different model and are brand new).

You can relieve yourself (number one only, of course) without taking off the waders or suspenders (Try that with your rubber pants, Gary!). 😊
