The smartest things I've ever done, especially for steelhead, is hone in on my high sticking and move to a 10' rod.

Now you're just talking dirty 😏

I love Ryan's approach here.

1. He didn't blame the problem on the "low number of fish".
2. He became a better fisherman by figuring out what works best for him!
3. He gets rewarded by catching more fish.

Keep up the good work Ryan!
