I love the sonic pros and they worked great until the zipper blew out on me in the methodist pool back in early august. Redington replaced them for me though for the 30.00 warranty fee. I guess you have to unzip the zipper fully everytime you get in and out or the zipper will eventually fail.

My next waders will the be the patagonias with the adjustable strap clips where you can easily convert them to full waders to down at your waist.
