That flow is ideal. It takes 75% of waders out of play. 1500-1800 cfs would concern me but 800 at hale is perfect. I'm not getting excited though...they shut it off just as quick as they opened it. If the lake turns over, get your streamer rod ready. Wish they'd bump the east to 500cfs. Pray for more water. Any release between 400 and 1500 will work. The fish change holding positions big time between those two numbers
