

Subject: : Fly Fishing Locations

Topic: : Clarion River area

Re: Clarion River area

Author: : LongWader

Date: : 2013/9/30 21:08:16

URL:

Any other freestone stream and a 22" fish would be a submarine. In the Clarion our benchmark for a submarine is a brown over 26" and that is just our benchmark. The fish I missed looked like a 28-29" fish and it pushed a wake that initially made me think that there was a beaver swimming towards me.